La Reserva del Madronal

La Reserva del Madronal

La Reserva del Madronal is a prestigious gated community within the midst of unspoilt nature together with amazing views over the Mediterranean Sea and the famous landmark mountain, La Concha. Away from the hustle and bustle of Puerto Banus and Marbella, yet within a few minutes driving distance are facilities such as sport, leisure and entertainment. Set amidst poplars and fragrant pines, El Madronal's location will be fully appreciated by the nature loving enthusiast, but this stunning retreat has high-tech security at each of its entrance gates, together with 24 hour patrolled security, thus ensuring the safety of its residents. An added bonus for El Madronal residents is the low community fees due to there being no need to maintain restaurants, gymnasiums or Spas.

Literally a stones throw from the exclusive La Zagaleta estate; El Madronal offers the same quality of living but in a more laid back, informal fashion.

A minimum plot size of 2.600m² has been implemented to ensure utter privacy and harmonious integration of homes into the environment. The plots are well spread out and local authority ruling ensures that density of build in this area never reaches more than 20% of the allocated plots. El Madronal plots start from just 340,000 Euros, but this depends of the plots location and the views that are on offer.
